

2.

I can't exactly remember when I wrote home last but I don't think I told you I was on guard last weekend so couldn't get a pass again. I can't see much chance now till next year - which is of course only three weeks away.

We did another jump yesterday, this time in full battle order. We flew for half an hour in the plane & then did a massed drop. I was No 2 and sat on the edge of the hole all the way and got a wonderful view of the ground looking down it. The weight of my equipment tipped me up-side-down when I jumped and I had a lovely head first spin as the chute opened, the earth looked like a gramophone record. We all landed heavily owing to the wind & the fact that our Canadian pilots didn't trouble to slow down and dropped us at full speed. Well I can just catch the lunch time post so here I am still hoping to be home soon love Walt (W. W. W.).
